

The Embassy of Spain in Port of Spain
has the honour to present the series of lectures:

SPAIN AND TRINIDAD: AN HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE

Spain in Trinidad: The Legacies of a Presence and Absence by Professor Bridget Brereton

Professor at the University of the West Indies, St Augustine, and former Interim Campus Principal (2007) and Deputy Principal (1999-2002). Author of many books on the history of Trinidad & Tobago and on the social history of the Caribbean.

Trinidad and the "second discovery" of the New World by Professor Manuel Lucena

Research Fellow in the Spanish Council for Scientific Research (CSIC) and Visiting Fellow of St. Antony's College (Oxford), Tufts University (Boston) and Central University in Caracas. Publications include a number of books on eighteenth-century Spanish American expeditions.

In Search of Spanish leftovers in the island of Trinidad by Professor Sylvia Moodie-Kublalsingh

Professor of Spanish at the University of the West Indies, St. Augustine, and former Director of the Centre for Language Learning.

Trinidad, the other gateway to America by Dr. María Dolores Ripoll

Research Fellow in the Spanish Council for Scientific Research (CSIC). Author of various works on the social and cultural history of the Caribbean.

THURSDAY 22ND AND FRIDAY 23RD OF MAY, 2008 at 6:00 PM

Free and open to the public

VENUE: THE NATIONAL LIBRARY
AND INFORMATION SYSTEMS AUTHORITY (NALIS).
CORNER HART AND ABERCROMBY STREETS, PORT OF SPAIN

For further information please contact the Embassy of Spain: emb.trinidad@maec.es